

Applicant

Job Title

Organization

1. The John Mack Fellows Program is designed to support individuals that have a demonstrated track record of least five years of advancing the racial justice movement through community organizing and outreach, action research, and/or advocacy. Briefly describe your direct experience in leading organized efforts to advance racial and social justice work.
2. Another criteria for eligibility is having stepped into a leadership/supervisory (e.g., managing staff and/or managing a coalition) role at your organization and/or movement building networks within the past three years. Describe the recent increase in your responsibilities at your organization or within your movement networks that help you meet this criteria.
3. What brought you to movement building work?
4. What do you hope to learn as a John W. Mack Movement Building Fellow?
5. Briefly describe any previous leadership development training you have completed.
6. Please list two professional references who are familiar with your experience in movement building work and/or your recent transition into a leadership and supervisory position.